Event Details

Amador Four Fires Festival (A4F) is a new concept wine and food festival designed to ignite your senses. Four celebrated wine regions inspire the art of Amador's winemakers and winegrowers, and the cuisine of star chefs cooking with open flame. May 2nd, 2015 at the historic Amador County Fairgrounds in Plymouth.

More than “just another wine tasting event, A4F is a veritable rural county fair teeming with all things wine and food and beckoning you to explore around every corner of our ten-acre site. Come early, and bring a big appetite, to experience a sensory adventure.

Over 200 wines are available for tasting, from more than 40 wineries. The food is everything but ordinary. Picture sizzling paella pans, lamb on spits, and roasted pig served alongside locally sourced vegetarian fare. Beyond the wine and food you'll find a cornucopia of tantalizing 20-minute seminars and activities.

The All-Inclusive Ticket: General admission provides our guests free parking, provides each a handsome collectible souvenir glass, and invites you to explore every corner of the expansive Four Fires Festival site to taste the wines, sample the foods, and immerse yourself in any of the special activities of your choice: tastings, demonstrations, and more.

All proceeds benefit the Amador County Fair Foundation and its Farm to Future Initiative.
